

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

One of the largest funerals in Danielson in a long time was that of Warden Herbert C. Keach, held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Walter R. Williams, of the Congregational church, officiating.

A large delegation of members of the churches of commerce, representative of the borough government, of the fire department, Masonic organizations, Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were numbered among those in attendance.

The bearers were Judge S. B. Russell, Winthrop Short, Frank E. Kennedy, Everett T. Tillingham, Roland H. Gray and Dr. H. A. Houghton, last named of Putnam. The bearers were representative of the borough government and the fraternal organizations with which Warden Keach was identified.

Beautiful floral remembrances included pieces from the court of burgesses, the fire department, Masonic and Odd Fellows' organizations, including the Rebekah lodge.

Burial was in Westfield cemetery. A. F. Wood was the funeral director.

This, P. Alexander Reeves, who lives near the crossing, saw the fire almost at its inception and was the first to fight it. Others came later, including Foreman Michael Peters and a crew of section men of the railroad. The fire burned over several acres, but did not do serious damage. Such quantities of smoke were blown over the village of Attawaugus that the impression was created that the fire was far more serious than it proved to be.

Following a meeting of the selectmen here Wednesday it was stated that consideration was being given to a tentative plan to replace notes of the town now in force with an issue of bonds, which can be placed at the present time at a considerably lower rate of interest than is being paid on the loan represented by the notes in question.

The notes were given to banks at the time an old issue of bonds amounting to $125,000 came due and bear six per cent interest. It is believed that a new issue of bonds of $125,000 could be placed at not in excess of 4 1/2 per cent interest at the present time and a premium obtained on a sale of the bonds.

At the time when the previous issue of bonds in the amount of $125,000 was coming due the town appointed a committee consisting of Judge M. A. Shumway and Frederick A. Jacobs with authority to arrange a refinancing agreement. Under the refinancing agreement the replacing of the bonds was deemed the best policy and it was carried out.

The situation is now such, it is said, that replacing the notes with a new issue of bonds bearing a low rate of interest, would be wise and profitable for the town. The subject is getting attention from the selectmen.

Mrs. George's Little Daughter

A Very Delicate Child, Was Made Strong and Robust By Taking Vinol

DAUGHTER OF MRS. L. W. GEORGE

Alton, S. C.—"My little daughter was thin, delicate and ailing. I was very much worried over her condition. I heard about Vinol and decided to try it, and I must say the results were simply marvelous. Her appetite improved, she gained in weight, her color came back in her cheeks, and all my friends comment on the change, as she is now one of the healthiest children in town. All mothers who have delicate, puny, ailing children should try Vinol."—Mrs. L. W. George, 1115 Newberry St., Alton, S. C.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the tissue building and medicinal elements of cod liver oil without oil, aided by the blood making strength creating properties of tonic iron and beef peptones. $1.90 per bottle guaranteed.

As health officer of the town, Dr. W. H. Judson was at Ballouville Wednesday morning to fumigate a home where the death of a child was due to diphtheria. Members of the family are under orders of Dr. Judson to remain in quarantine for at least a week in order that time may be given to ascertain whether further cases may develop.

Wednesday morning, the funeral of Kostas Koutoumides was held from his home on the West Side at services at Trinity Orthodox Greek church on Water street, numbers of friends of the deceased attending. Burial was in Westfield cemetery. Louis E. Kennedy was the funeral director.

Following a meeting of the council of the churches of the Ashford Baptist association, at Ballouville, Wednesday afternoon, to consider the ordination of J. Walter Houck as pastor here, there was a public service at 7 o'clock attended by a large number.

Among the former pastors who participated in the service were Rev. H. Jasper Twomey, D. D., of Newark, N. J.; Rev. W. Douglas Swaffield, Keene, N. H.; invocation, and Rev. Byron U. Hatfield, Westfield, who gave the charge to the church. Other pastors participated in the service, as announced in Tuesday's Bulletin. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Houck, and a large number followed the evening service.

Basketball fans here are interested in the contest scheduled for this evening between the K. of C. team and the General

Insurance company five of Hartford. A fast preliminary game will precede the main contest.

Attending the presence of many local people, it was announced Wednesday that several hundred new saving accounts have been opened in Danielson within the past three weeks.

All the manufacturing plants in Killingly continue to be active and to afford employment to hundreds of operatives. In respect to employment Killingly is one of the exceptionally fortunate towns, and the winter promises to be one of steady occupation for the workers.

State Officer Merrill Keith sustained a painful injury to his thumb while playing football at the state police instruction station at Lyme.

Both crews operating out of Danielson for the state entomology department are now engaged in the winter work of scouting, in which they cover various towns in this part of the county.

There will be no "white way" in Danielson's business section this Christmas, but the business men will concentrate on value given and greater variety in offering than ever before.

The funeral of Raymond Gauthier was held from his home in Ballouville Wednesday morning, burial being in St. Joseph's cemetery in Dayville. L. E. Kennedy was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Excepting for a brief period at mid-day, the temperature again remained below the freezing point all of Wednesday, which produced a minimum morning temperature of 22 degrees.

The business of Herbert C. Keach is to be continued through his estate, it was stated Wednesday.

John C. Steele of Pawtucket was in Danielson Wednesday on a business trip, also will be available to residents of Pomfret and Thompson anxious to save great numbers of beautiful trees damaged in the storm.

At Woodstock Messrs. Davis, Hollister and Filley also gave much time to the consideration of orchard damage and methods of overcoming as much of it as possible. In many orchards as much as 20 per cent of the bearing parts of trees have been broken off. Old trees suffered most severely, though younger orchards were hard hit in the storm.

At a session of the city court Wednesday morning Judge Geisler sentenced to jail for 30 days John Garland of Attawaugus, charged with having been intoxicated, and to the house of correction for 10 days, a man named J. R. Doolittle, charged with being drunk.

A daily increase is noted in the fund being created by the Danielson Benevolent association to bring Christmas cheer to homes in Danielson.

M. C. Millette of New Bedford was a visitor with friends in Danielson Wednesday.

Those who have ventured off state roads during the present week have found unimproved highways well roughed up after the heavy rains and freezing weather.

NORTH WOODSTOCK

County Game Warden Harry Battey brought two trappers here Justice Perrin Monday charged with setting traps on the land of George McCallan without permission. They pleaded guilty and were fined the minimum penalty.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Leavitt and Charles Perrin attended the funeral of George A. Paine in Southbridge, Mass., Sunday.

Mrs. C. M. Perrin entertained the Social Dames at her home Saturday afternoon. A program, the subject of which was American Indians, was enjoyed. Mrs. Wendell Wither and Mrs. Wendell Beaumont assisted in serving refreshments.

The work of opening the roads in town by removing the fallen trees and branches is still being actively carried on by gangs of men. The expense to the town will be considerable.

Mrs. Henry Hill and daughter are visiting in Southbridge for a few weeks.

The church schools are being newly situated by Messrs. Todd and Clemente.

The new bridge is now open to public travel and receiving general commendation.

PUTNAM

County Agent F. L. Davis, in company with State Forester George Hollister of the Connecticut Agricultural college at Storrs, and C. O. Filley, New Haven, former state forester, have been in Woodstock the past two days for conference with citizens of that town relative to methods of treatment of trees so badly injured in the ice storm of the early part of last week.

Each tree, it seems, represents an individual problem, according to the nature of its injury, its type, its location, etc. The experts advised with those who are to supervise the work of doing all that is possible to save the trees from becoming a total loss.

On the common at Woodstock Hill, where the shade tree damage is the worst in this section of the country, magnificent elms are in all stages of dilapidation. This is also true of other beautiful trees throughout the town. Some trees were set out many years ago upon the occasion of visits of presidents of the United States and other distinguished persons and to commemorate other such events, historical anniversaries and the like, so there is special anxiety to save them for posterity.

The work to be undertaken will be carried on according to the valuable and expert advice that has been furnished by the men mentioned. County Agent Davis said Wednesday morning that the trees look their worst at the present time. After they have been trimmed and otherwise treated, and when they are again clothed in foliage, it will be evident how much of the destruction that now causes such regret will be covered up.

The advice of the experts mentioned also will be available to residents of Pomfret and Thompson anxious to save great numbers of beautiful trees damaged in the storm.

At Woodstock Messrs. Davis, Hollister and Filley also gave much time to the consideration of orchard damage and methods of overcoming as much of it as possible. In many orchards as much as 20 per cent of the bearing parts of trees have been broken off. Old trees suffered most severely, though younger orchards were hard hit in the storm.

Four survivors from the office of A. W. Russell of Norwich, division engineer of the state highway department, were in town Monday surveying the newly constructed road, to determine if they had been constructed in accordance with the plans and specifications as required.

Dwight A. Lyman and Allison L. Frink were appointed appraisers of the estate of the late Denison Avery. The appraisal was made Monday inventing about $1,600.

John Wilcox of Andover states that last Christmas time he will have 400 cords of wood to saw for a lumber firm in Williamstown.

Columbia grange dramatic club for some years past has been giving entertainments both here and in the surrounding towns. In addition to the social ability they have enjoyed at the rehearsals and entertainments, the club has accumulated a fund which it has been the intention to devote to some public improvement in town. Their first idea was to enlarge the stage and dressing rooms of the town hall, but it was found to involve expensive changes in the building, and it was not undertaken. They had in view the improvement of the green, but a society for that purpose was formed, and is working with that object in view. Lately they made a proposition to the selectmen to purchase any install a furnace in the hall which has heretofore been heated by stoves. The proposition was accepted.

THE CHILDREN AT CHRISTMAS TIME

The mother of these four children says that she has used Father John's Medicine for the past twenty years and in cases of severe colds she believes it has no equal. In a recent letter she said, "I have used Father John's Medicine for twenty years. I knew of its value and use long before I was married, I have given it to all of my four children and for group and severe colds I think it is very good". (signed) Mrs. Rose G. Kuffe, White Plains, N. Y.

Millions of mothers depend on Father John's Medicine to keep their children well and strong and to restore their strength after any illness. They know that it has had more than 65 years of success for colds and coughs and as a tonic and body builder.

and last week a one-pipe furnace was installed and used for the first time on Saturday evening at an entertainment given by Echo at Storrs. A 32-inch fireproof to which unqualified approval was given and the dramatic club members have been given the dinner. Thanks of the town for their energy and public spirit.

George H. Champlin, who is in charge of repair work to the state highway at Greenwich, Conn., was at his home on Sunday, but was ill and unable to return to business until later in the week.

Columbia grange dramatic club for some years past has been giving entertainments both here and in the surrounding towns. In addition to the social ability they have enjoyed at the rehearsals and entertainments, the club has accumulated a fund which it has been the intention to devote to some public improvement in town. Their first idea was to enlarge the stage and dressing rooms of the town hall, but it was found to involve expensive changes in the building, and it was not undertaken. They had in view the improvement of the green, but a society for that purpose was formed, and is working with that object in view. Lately they made a proposition to the selectmen to purchase any install a furnace in the hall which has heretofore been heated by stoves. The proposition was accepted.
